Office hours:

There are no in-person office hours for this course. All communication should take place by email.

Time and Place

There is no in-person component of this course. The course will be offered in the second half of each Fall and Spring semesters.

Course Goals

This is a graduate level seminar course required of all students enrolled in the Accelerated Online Program in ECE. The 8-week course will be based on pre-recorded videos, with two modules released each week. The seminars will cover a broad range of topics related to Electrical and Computer Engineering. Students will be expected to demonstrate their familiarity with the topics by answering a series of quiz questions following each recorded video. Offered on a CR/NC basis only.

Student Learning Outcomes (Objectives)

Students will be expected to demonstrate their familiarity with the contents of seminars by answering a series of quiz questions following each recorded video. Students who fail to get 100% score on a quiz after 3 attempts will have to write a 1-page summary, thus proving they watched the video.

Assessment and Grades

This course is offered on a CR/NC basis only. To receive a credit for the course, passing of all the quizzes at 100% is required. Multiple attempts are permitted. However, if the 100% score is not achieved after 3 attempts, the student will have to write a summary of the seminar, following the published guidelines for preparing a summary.

Textbooks/Materials/Equipment/Technology

No textbooks or other reading materials will be required. The students will need to have access to Internet and email in order to access the videos and submit quiz answers or summaries.

Accommodation Statement

“In accordance with University Policy 2310 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), academic accommodations may be made for any student who notifies the instructor of the need for an accommodation. It is imperative that the student takes the initiative to bring such needs to the instructor’s attention, as the instructor is not legally permitted to inquire. Contact the Accessibility Resource Center at 277-3506 for additional information.

Title IX Statement

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see pg 15 -<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/universitypolicies/2000/2740.html>

Code of Ethics and Professionalism

Each student is expected to maintain the highest standards of honesty and integrity in academic and professional matters. All students are expected to answer quiz questions independently. Group work is not permitted.
